Dear [REDACTED]

A copy of our first two-page summary for the Secretary of State was airmailed you today along with a copy of an accompanying letter to Mr. Bohlen. You will note that we plan to furnish our last report here in Washington on 19 November 1947. It is our understanding that the Secretary will depart from Washington on 20 November 1947. Our last report will cover broadcasts received here on the 18th of November, which means they will, for the most part, have been intercepted in the field on 17 November 1947.

With this in mind, I suggest that you prepare your first report so as to be delivered to Mr. Bohlen on 24 November 1947 covering the period beginning 18 November 1947 and ending as late as your deadline for delivery will permit. Thereafter the summary should be furnished daily.

Sincerely yours,
